

AccessCBC - Scripted Stream Application PDF

This is the application form for the Scripted Stream of AccessCBC, an initiative that will invite up to 10 Deaf and disabled creators to participate in a series of pitch development workshops for drama or comedy series. For more information about the program, please see <https://reelabilities.org/toronto/accesscbc>. If you would like to apply in an alternate format (e.g. spoken audio or signed video recording), or have any questions about this form, please reach out to info.accesscbc@gmail.com

1. Your Full Name and Pronouns:
2. Company name (if any):
3. Email address:
4. Mailing address:
5. Phone number:
6. Proposed project title:

Part 1: About Your Project

Tell us more about you and your project! Please feel free to communicate in whatever way works best for you -- written, spoken, or signed.

In order for your application to be considered, you must include a bio, work sample, project logline and synopsis. To learn more about writing a project logline and synopsis, check out this resource.

1. Bio: A short paragraph that tells us about who you are.
2. Work Sample: Please attach a piece of original storytelling that is directly related to your series concept. This sample can be a script (short film, television or feature), a short story, article, signed video, audio recording, or anything that represents your storytelling skill and helps us understand your project idea.
3. Project Logline: 1 line that summarizes what your project is about.
4. Synopsis: A brief paragraph summarizing your project.
5. Bios of team: If there are any other creatives currently attached to this project (writer, director, producer, executive producer, or any other applicable roles), please include their bios (1 paragraph each). If not, please leave this section blank.

Part 2: Submission Release

In order to review your application, CBC requires a submission release agreement. If you have any questions about this process, please reach out to info.accesscbc@gmail.com.

Submission Release:

1. You own or control the Proposal. You have the full and exclusive right to submit the Proposal to CBC and no other person or corporation has any right, title or interest in the Proposal inconsistent with your rights to develop and license the Proposal. If you are submitting the Proposal on behalf of a corporation that owns the Proposal, you have the authority to bind such corporation. The Proposal is not defamatory and does not infringe upon or violate the privacy rights, copyrights, trademarks, publicity or other intellectual or proprietary rights of any third party.
2. CBC has not made any promise or representation to you about the Proposal, and has no obligation to use the Proposal in any way. There is no agreement, written or oral, express or implied, between you and CBC concerning the Proposal, other than this release.
3. CBC will give the Proposal only the consideration that CBC in its sole and absolute discretion determines is appropriate.
4. CBC does not accept any obligation of confidentiality with respect to the Proposal. CBC has the right to copy, use, and distribute the Proposal for the purpose of its evaluation and review. You have kept a copy of the Proposal. CBC has no obligation to return the Proposal to you and is not responsible for any loss or damage to the Proposal.
5. CBC may have already and may in the future receive or independently develop materials similar to the Proposal. CBC has the unrestricted right to use these similar materials, and you will have no right or recourse against CBC for use of these similar materials.

I have read the CBC submission release form and understand that the execution of this release is necessary before CBC will review the Proposal. I represent and agree to the submission release terms.

Part 3: Eligibility

All applicants must satisfy all application requirements to be considered for this program. To view our full eligibility criteria, please refer to our project webpage <https://reelabilities.org/toronto/accesscbc>, and/or answer the questions below.

1. Are you a Canadian citizen or landed immigrant in Canada?
2. Do you identify as Deaf and/or Disabled? This program's understanding of disability embraces The Accessible Canada Act definition which is inclusive of those who are Mad, chronically ill, Blind, Neurodiverse, and experience any visible and/or invisible disabilities, permanent, temporary or episodic in nature.
3. Are you 18+?
4. Are you a current employee of CBC?

Part 4: Accessibility

CBC is committed to accessibility. These workshops will be taking place over Zoom or a virtual platform equivalent, and we will be providing closed captioning and ASL interpretation.

This information won't impact our assessment of your application, we will only be using it to make sure we structure these workshops inclusively. We also understand that access needs can change and you will have more opportunities to share your access needs in the future.

How can we make this program more accessible for you? Please let us know what accessibility measures will be required.

Part 5: Voluntary Self Disclosure Survey

This survey is voluntary, but we hope you will complete this portion so that we can better understand the demographic makeup of applicants from creative disability communities. The data will help us identify gaps and advance equity, inclusion and representation. By completing this survey, you agree that the data will be transmitted in an aggregated form. This means that the information will be collected in an anonymous format.
